10/16/72-Pearl- For the Striso Uber Alles ept this article from Parade, 10/15 hardly a pro-China weekly suppelement. I've marked a few of the passages to which I direct special attention. No resuh on return, but I'd like it back, with the extra note attacjed. This tell yous part of what I'd said long ango, that the whole thing is very un-Chinese, is inconsistent with policy in the New China, and if nothing else, the burning of that vast store of the stuff should persuade you that they do not seel it abroad. Otherwise, they'd have been burning dollars. Who ever heard of the Chinese who do that? Only Americans do it! How kong, how kong? Best, HW
